

Be part of our campaign to make writing cool - by exclusively sponsoring your local schools!

Our schools creative writing programme focuses in particular on pupils and parents; and individuals, organisations and businesses across the UK are sponsoring their local schools to get involved and create a buzz about writing in their communities.

When you sponsor a local school to benefit from our creative writing programme they will receive:

- A range of Creative Writing Lesson plans for Key Stages 1-4
- Set of 'How To' articles on writing tips for children and adults
- Series of inspirational features from well known writers
- Support in the delivery of special creative writing projects in their school
- 2 visits by a writer who will run a creative writing workshop involving pupils and parents
- Provision of Brit Writers special certificates & opportunity for you to attend their recognition events
- Free entry to the Brit Writers' Awards Unpublished 2011 for all their pupils, parents and teachers
- £5000 prize to the school if a member of their school wins at the national awards

Sponsor one or more of your local schools & benefit from recognition throughout the year!
Annual sponsorship fees are only £100 (plus VAT) per school.

What some schools are saying:

"Our kids are really excited about the competition...we've even got a couple of entries from parents!" Dave Taylor, Rushcliffe School

"We have done a 'Brit Writers' week... we have done lots of drama, role play, and storytelling to fuel the children's ideas... we are going to do another one."
Adam Robbins, Parsloes Primary School

"Our special Brit Writers' project will be to launch a school magazine - run by the pupils!" Lorna Spence, Conway Primary School

If your company sponsors a school you will:

- Be listed as a Schools Sponsor on the Brit Writers website
- Have the opportunity to attend recognition events at the schools & present awards.
- Receive local press and media opportunities
- A certificate with your company name will be displayed in the school
